

Stephen King's DEMONIC WORKS!

By David J. Stewart

Acts 26:18, “To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.”

Stephen King's books and movies are Satanic—filled with hatred against Christianity, mockery of the truth, bizarre killings and gore, and occult demon worship.

Perhaps none of King's works are more demonic than THE MIST, 2007, based on a novel originally written by Stephen King; rewritten for the screen by Frank Darabont. The movie is evil to the core. Since the movie largely is based upon the Biblical book of Revelation, and involves MUCH religion, and occultism—it needs to be exposed. Any movie that improperly addresses religious issues, horribly speaks about God and the Bible, misquotes umpteen Scriptures; is a work of darkness.

Stephen King is obviously a part of the New World Order [NWO] movement, incorporating occult and NWO symbols into his movies. This is all just my opinion as a Christian. I feel that King is a Luciferian worshipper—evidenced by his persistent attack against God, desecrating things that are holy and righteous, and combining science fiction with Biblical truth. To hear a little girl singing “Jesus Loves Me” while monsters are attacking in a horror movie is blasphemy!

In my sincere Christian opinion, King deliberately confuses horror movies with Biblical Christianity to desecrate, disrespect and discredit Christianity and the God of the Bible. It appears that King deliberately strikes sensitive areas within the public's heart. For people who have grown up in a Christian environment; having being taught goodness, morals and decency by the Bible and church; King's movies are highly offensive. I heard a professed “Christian” radio host speak of King as a mastermind, genius and legend. In Satan's world only! In God's eyes Stephen King is a wicked person, a loser and an enemy of God (James 4:4).

When Stephen King, or anyone, enters into the realm of religion, they are treading on holy ground. To quote the Scriptures (which is the ultimate reality and truth); alongside science-fiction, nudity, cursing in God's name, sexual immorality, gore scenes, brutal violence on screen, and every other form of evil imaginable... it is evil. Proverb 6:16-19 proclaims that God hates a heart that deviseth evil imaginations. King's heart is a dark place of demonic fantasy, blasphemy against God, and loyalty to the demonic god of this world, Satan (2nd Corinthians 4:4).

It couldn't be more obvious that Stephen King hates God-fearing, Bible-preaching, soul-winning Christians. In The Mist, one man states that he believes in God, but not in the way that the crazy woman does. The implication is that anyone who preaches about sin, Hell and God's judgment is a religious nutcase! The movie implies that true faith in God amounts to keeping your opinions to yourself. Anyone who preaches against sin, wickedness, and reminds men of the judgment to come are psychotic whackos. That is what The Mist propagates. The movie needs to be exposed for the evil it is, because it centers around religion and the Bible; eventually showing that the crazed religious woman is really a Satan-worshipper, who sacrifices children to Satan.

A Satanic Offering to THE BEAST

It is no mere coincidence that Stephen King's, THE MIST, continually refers to THE BEAST. The Mist film is of the Devil.

The crazed religious women provokes the crowd to stab a young military man to death. She then tells the crowd to sacrifice the mortally bleeding man to THE BEAST (a giant horned creature lurking outside the door). As the crowd is carrying the man out the front door (to sacrifice him to THE BEAST), the man is making an occult sign in both hands. In his right hand he is making the 666 sign, and a NWO hand sign in his left hand. This plainly evidences that Stephen King's movie is a sacrifice to Satan, on screen for the public to view. This is how subtle Luciferians are today. They are bringing Satanic sacrifices right to the movie theatre, and into people's homes.

This is exactly what heavy-metal Rock bands are doing. Their albums are demonic offerings, and the listeners are partaking of the ritual killing. I heard Dave Mustang of the Satanic heavy-metal Rock group MEGADETH, refer to his latest album as "AN OFFERING." Yes, Rock 'N' Roll bands produce albums as offerings, Satanic submissions, sinful praise, to the prince of darkness. Whether it be demonic music, movies, books, plays, building architecture, et cetera... we clearly see much praise in the world today to the prince of darkness, Lucifer, who is Satan in disguise. Satan attempted to get Jesus to worship him in Matthew 7:10, but Jesus used the Word of God to defeat the Devil. Satan has been seeking the praise and worship of evil men and women since the beginning of time. That's what the New World Order is all about, i.e., the worship of THE BEAST. Revelation 13:15 confirms this Biblical truth.

Revelation 13:3, "...and all the world wondered after the beast."

Revelation 13:4, "And they worshipped the dragon... and they worshipped the beast..."

Revelation 13:5, "And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies"

Revelation 13:6, "And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name."

These Scriptures clearly reveal that the world will follow after the beast, worshipping him. The Antichrist is not here yet; but the world is already following him—flashing Satanic hand signs, displaying the Masonic All-Seeing-Eye and The Great Pyramid of Egypt, singing about Devil worship, bragging that they're on a Highway to Hell, and producing movies that worship the Beast. Luciferianism is everywhere we turn, but people just don't recognize the occult nature of Satan's works of darkness! The Beast will blaspheme God's holy name, which is exactly what writers and movie producers like Stephen King are already doing. They are preparing the way for the Beast, i.e., the Antichrist.

Every movie that Stephen King, James Cameron and Stephen Spielberg direct contain repeated cursing in God's name, and the holy name of Jesus is continually used as a curse word. Over and over the movie actors curse, "GOD D_MN IT!" This is blasphemy against God. These evil men do it on purpose. It is the insignia of Hollywood and the heathen movie industry. In James Cameron's blockbuster billion-dollar movie, AVATAR, Sigourney Weaver curses in God's name the very moment she appears in the movie. The name of "Jesus" is also blasphemed in the movie, used as a curse word. The name of Jesus is blasphemed in THE MIST, used as a curse word. It has become a part of American culture to shout "Jesus," when someone is angry, shocked or disgusted. This is blasphemy against God!!!

John 5:23, "That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him." Hollywood greatly dishonors the Son of God, Jesus Christ; and in so doing seals their own fate as haters of God the Father as well. If you dishonour Jesus, then you also dishonour the Father!

The agenda to destroy masculine authoritative has been ongoing for generations. Consider the 1984 demonic film by occultist, Stephen King, titled Children Of The Corn. The film depicts a small rural town in which the children murder all their parents. Children quote Bible verses frequently, mocking God and blaspheming the Bible. One man is crucified in the corn field, as a scarecrow, mocking Jesus who died for our sins. The children often mention "sin" as they kill the parents and adults, shouting "praise God" throughout the sicko film. The murderous children often claim to be seeking and doing "God's will." Clearly, Stephen King in reality is a very twisted and sick individual, controlled by Satan. The movie is evil to the core, a total mockery of Christianity. Stephen King hates God and the Bible. In one sensual scene, two naked teenagers are shown having sexual intercourse while 6-8 year old children watch and are visibly excited from what they see. This movie is still popular on television today, even being remade in 2009. The original low-budget $800,000 film has made Stephen King nearly $15,000,000 in box-office profits and continues to generate evil profits.

Stephen King's 1983 film, Pet Sematary, is based upon a pet cemetery infringing upon an ancient Indian burial ground, which causes anything buried there to come back to life, jilted in anger. In the film, the families cat is named "Church" and gets hits by a truck. After being buried in the per cemetery, the cat comes back to life with evil eyes, the smell of decay, violent and evil. King names the dead zombie cat "Church," which is more than mere coincidence. King hates Christianity, despises the Church, and blasphemes everything sacred and holy.

As if King's bizarre works weren't strange enough, truth is often stranger than fiction... King's daughter Naomi was at one time a Unitarian Universalist Church \(UUC\) minister in Plantation, Florida with her interracial same-sex partner, Rev. Dr. Thandeka. The so-called church continues today with a new lesbian couple ministering the church. A startling 18% of members of the Unitarian Universalist Church are professed atheists.

Obviously, the UUC is a fraud religion, not even remotely related to Christianity. The fundamental belief of the UUC is that there are no fundamental beliefs. Members are free and encouraged to form their own beliefs, choose as they may, without any obligation to believe or obey the holy Bible.

Homosexuals gravitate toward the UUC religion because they are welcomed as vile homosexuals, and do not have to worry about hearing a Biblical sermon against the sin of homosexuality. Anything goes in the UUC. Romans 1:25 forewarned that homosexuals would CHANGE the truth of God into a lie, and they have. So it should not come as a surprise that we are witnessing sodomite churches rising up across America. In March of 2013 the Obama Presidency called for the U.S. Supreme Court to force every state to recognize lesbian and homosexual same-sex marriages. How much more of this wickedness is God going to tolerate before He says, ENOUGH!!!

Turning Good into Evil, and Evil into Good

Stephen King is a worshipper of the Beast in my opinion. It is subtle how movie directors and producers claim it's just a movie, while they are offering people in sacrifice to The Beast in the movie. Certainly, God-fearing Christians should avoid Hollywood movies altogether; but the said fact is that many unsaved people, who don't know any better, are being confused by movies such as The Mist by Stephen King and Frank Darabont. In the movie, they refer to the book of Revelations (plural); but the Bible contains the book of Revelation (singular). It is the revelation of Jesus Christ; not a revelation of future happenings. Yes, Revelation teaches future prophecy; but the purpose of the book is to reveal the character, nature and Person of Jesus Christ to the reader (John 5:39; Revelation 19:10).

The movie writer didn't even get the name of the book of Revelation right. However, the woman who is portrayed as a lunatic religious woman continually quotes the Bible; and then tells Satan that she is serving him; and she calls for the sacrifice of a young boy to The Beast. This is pure Satanism. Richard Roeper, Ebert & Roeper call THE MIST, "a wickedly entertaining thrill ride."

The word "wicked" sadly no longer means what it used to mean in today's apostate generation. The word "wicked" comes straight from the Bible (mentioned 421 times in the King James' Old Testament) and means extremely immoral and wrong. Sadly, today's smut-makers in Hollywood have redefined the word to mean something wonderful, great and entertaining. By redefining such words; there are no words remaining to describe the awfulness of sin. This is Satan's intended plan, i.e., to confuse everyone about everything. This is why there are hundreds of different Bibles. This is why there are so many different religions. This is why there are so many different Christ's. Satan wants to confuse people, to BLIND their minds from the truth of God's Word (2nd Corinthians 4:4).

This is exactly why Satan's servants redefine everything. They turn good into evil, and evil into good. That's exactly what Stephen King and Frank Darabont do in this horrible movie, i.e., they portray a woman in a long dress who preaches about sin and judgment from the Bible; and then as the movie progresses she changes into a Satan-worshipping, child-sacrificing whacko. The human mind is incredibly complicated, and movie producers like Stephen King understand the psychology behind such demonic movies as The Mist; and the science of subliminal suggestion. The Mist is clearly intended to demonize Christians who preach the Bible. The message is that it's ok to believe in God; but don't you dare preach to anyone, or else you're a nutcase, Satan-worshipping, whacko!!! That's what King's religious movie teaches. It is 100% a demonic religious movie!!!

Conclusion of the Matter

King's movies stoop lower than low. The Mist, although rewritten by Darabont, is King's brain child. The movie features a woman who is first portrayed as a devout Christian (carrying a Bible), then progresses into a religious nutcase (who justifies killings by misquoting the book of Revelation throughout the movie), then she makes a vow to serve Satan to avert being stung by giant scorpion-like creature, at the same time. At a later point in the movie, she calls for the sacrifice of a young Caucasian boy, and of a Caucasian woman.

Stephen King attacks Christianity much—blaspheming God, attacking the Bible, perverting the truth, tampering with things that he ought not. I personally think Stephen King is a Satan-worshipper, and demon-possessed. His intense hatred for Bible-believing Christians is disturbing to say the least. TENS-OF-MILLIONS of people watch King's movies. Sinful men praise King for his works of darkness, calling him a “FRIGHTMASTER”; but in reality, King is a child of the Devil, promoting Satanism and hatred against the God of the Bible. Philippians 4:8, “Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.” There is nothing good, nor to be praised, about Stephen King's works of horror and darkness. Only a sick mind can produce sick books and movies. There's certainly nothing lovely about his books, which are horrible.

I don't condemn anyone, for we are all guilty sinners deserving of Hell fire (Romans 3:19). Albeit, Stephen King is treading upon holy ground when he desecrates the Bible, blasphemes God, and incorporates religious ideas into his science-fiction and horror based books and movies. Ephesians 5:11 instructs born-again believers to refute (Greek: elencho, i.e., to expose) all works of darkness. King's novels and movies are disrespectful to God in every way. The Bible is reality, THE TRUTH (John 17:17), and ought not be handled by evil men in such an evil manner as King does.

Stephen King is influencing Tens-of-millions of people for Satan. Christians need to preach against his evil works, because King degrades the Bible—creating disturbing scenes of people cursing God, doubting God, and hurting others emotionally and physically in the name of God. King is a sicko, in the same boat as Marilyn Manson and Ozzy Osbourne. It is disturbing that professed so-called Christian radio celebrities are promoting Stephen King's works of darkness as something good. It just goes to show that not all that glitters is gold.

I challenge you in these Last Days to draw closer to God as James 4:8 invites all people. But it all must begin with the blood of Jesus Christ. Ephesians 2:13, “But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.” We are SINNERS and Jesus is the SAVIOR. It's that simple to be saved. If you'll trust in your heart, believing upon the name of Jesus for the forgiveness of your sins, then you'll be saved eternally.

"Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour." — Proverb 14:9

*"Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things." —Philippines
3:19*
